Boston Wool Market.

Boston Wool Market.

Boston, Jan. 12.—A heavy business has been done in the past week in the Boston wool market. The volume of sales ran high, although buyers have offered no advanced prices. Trade has been good, with the market firm. Mill-owners have bought in larger bulks. A stronger market is expected.

There is a steady trade in Territory wools. The demand for pulled wools is active, with only a moderate supply. Foreign wools are quiet but firm. Current quotations may be summarized as follows:

Grain and Provisions.

Chicago, Jan. 12—A bullish pervaded the wheat plus strong at the wtan to lapte at 51 to tors influencing ing were a decil consols on a re-foreign markets together with lack of moisture in the Southwest. At the advance there was liberal profit-taking, which resulted in a setback of about half a cent. The market steadled on heavy purchases by the big long interests. Later in the session a report was circulated that Japan had accepted Russia's counter proposition. This rumor started another selling movement on the part of local traders. The desire to take profits was intensified by a fairly large increase in the world's available stocks. Under this seiling pressure May declined to $55.c. A better export demand with reports of rains was well maintained and closing prices showed good gains. May pork opened 174c to 225c higher at $12.50812.95; sold between $12.875.6013.66, closing at $13.025. Lard opened 74 to 10c higher at $5.874.66.99, and after ranging between $5.856.6225. Closing at $5.874.66.925 closed at $5.825.8 Ribs were also up 7½ to 10c at the start at $6.874.66.94. Mal closed at $6.866.625. A better export demand with reports of rain soon caused a reversal of sentiment. Prices responded readily to the change, May advancing to $74.6675. The close was strong at that figure.

A war scare induced considerable covering by shorts in corn early in the day May closed $4c up at 47\cdot c.

A report that the prominent long was adding to his line brought out a general demand for loats. May closed at 55\cdot c.

Provisions were strong on lighter receipts of hogs but more especially on renewed talk of war. Shorts and commission houses were active buyers early in the session with offerings coming mostly from packers. The strength manifested at the opening was well maintained and closing prices showed good gains.
